We are excited to announce the winner of Chariho's school-level Poetry Out Loud competition: Congratulations to this year's winner, Holly Shilale, who will represent Chariho for the Poetry Out Loud State Competition on Saturday, March 7, 2026, at the Providence Public Library. Congratulations to our runner-ups, Kelley Drake and Lillian Hall. We are very proud of all the students who participated in this year's competition by memorizing and reciting a variety of poems that celebrate America's 250th Anniversary. Thank you to our judges, Rebecca Burns, Johannah LaFountain, Regan Clark, Tatiana Sullivan, and Jasmine Learner.

All participants should stop by room C1B after the morning announcements on Monday, February 23, 2026, to pick up participant certificates and prizes.
